ARTICLE XVII – Special Awards

Sec. 1

General Considerations for Individual Awards

- The CDHJC Chairperson will appoint annually three or four Directors to serve on a selection committee.
- The CDHJC will accept written nominations from CDHJC members which shall contain facts and reasons for the nomination.
- The committee will give each nomination consideration, but they are not bound by the nominations themselves nor by the number of nominations pertaining to any one individual.
- Nominations should be sent to a designated member of the Special Awards Committee.
- The selection committee will make its determination as soon after November 30th as possible, in order to have sufficient time in which to order and have available suitable plaques, engraved and ready for presentation at the annual banquet.
- The selection committee's choice shall remain confidential.
- By consensus, the committee may choose not to make an award in any given year.
- This award can be made to the same person on more than one occasion.

Sec. 2

HORSEMAN/HORSEWOMAN OF THE YEAR

- The committee will be charged with the responsibility of selecting the man and /or woman who in their opinion has earned the title of Horseman/Horsewoman of the Year.
- Selection will be based on conduct, example, and contribution to the industry and not on popularity.
- The Horseman/Horsewoman will be members of the CDHJC who have given of themselves unselfishly and who have shown by past performance a sincere interest in the industry and are deserving of recognition.

Sec.3

THE CATHLEEN M. QUINN JUNIOR SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

- The committee will be charged with the responsibility of selecting the Junior member who, in their opinion, has earned the Sportsmanship Award.
- The selection will be made on conduct and example, not popularity.
- Official description to be written in the Annual Banquet program or Newsletter. “Cathleen was a special person. You knew that the minute you met her. She was a mentor, a leader, a friend, a true horseman and an inspiration to all who knew her. She had a tremendous amount of patience when working with her horses and people. She always put her horses first, never putting her own needs and ambitions before them. She also made time for teaching those around her proper horsemanship. She was dedicated to her horses, going to the barn every day, in any type of weather. She picked her stalls and groomed her own horses, even braiding them for horse shows. Cathleen was a passionate person, never complaining, always smiling. She truly loved life and lived each of her young days to the fullest. She was always willing to lend a hand, whenever help was needed. Cathleen was a true friend. After the work was done, we spent a lot of time up in the hay loft talking about anything and everything. We still miss her.”
